

Biswajit Saha

The department of Journalism and Mass Communication is currently run by one Full time Contractual Lecturer.

Biswajit Saha joined the department in September 2013.

He completed his graduation in Political Science (Hons.) in 2008 from the University of Calcutta and did his M.A. with Journalism & Mass Communication also from The University of Calcutta.

He completed a UGC funded Career Oriented Certificate and Advanced Diploma course in Journalism, Mass Communication & Videography from Maheshtala College.

Biswajit has worked for RICE Group's Bengali daily newspaper 'Swabhumi' as a desk reporter as well as worked for Bengali Magazine "Utsab" and has written joint articles in this magazine. He also worked for Bengali Health Magazine "Susasthya" & Bengali Evening Tabloid "Sandhya Aajkal" as a reporter.

He has participated in a UGC sponsored National Workshop on "Media Teaching", held in December 2015 at Vijaygarh Jyotish Ray College, Kolkata and also participated in various state level & National level seminars of Journalism & Mass Communication of the University of Calcutta.

His area of interest is to critically analyse the effect on audience & reader of news media. Another area of interest is also to critically analyse the media effect on changing of culture.