ALUMNI FEEDBACK ANALYSIS

2018-23

Since the college does not have a registered alumni association, however the alumnimembers are much involved with the college through various means. The Facebook page of the college has many alumni as its followers. Various departments have alumni what's app groups to facilitate contact. The Alumni survey had 134 respondents. The IQAC notes significant points from the analysis-

1. Out of the respondents 56.7% were students of B.A Honours and 23.1 % of BSc Hons,
2. 69.4% has pursued higher education after college.
3. 97.8% feel proud to be an alumnus of the college.
4. 82.1 say that the teacher student relation is very good.
5. 17.9% of the respondents were satisfied with the college infrastructure.
6. 73.8% of the alumnus noted that the cooperation from the Non-teaching staff ranged from very good to good.
7. 8.2% marked the provision of extracurricular activities as poor.
8. 91% of the alumnus in the parameter of overall evaluation of the college marked from a range of very good to good.

Some Observations from the Alumnus-

The IQAC appreciates the constructive suggestions for improvement given by the alumnus. It also lauds their participation and thoughts about future development of the college.

1. Majority respondents suggested an increase in infrastructure, more classrooms per department, a separate science building etc
2. Interestingly a number of respondents wanted post-graduation courses to begin in college.
3. Some respondents suggested a need for a stricter discipline.
4. Respondents lauded the teacher student relationship, NCC facilities role of the Principal, quality of teachers etc.
5. There were also suggestions for a girl's hostel and a greater number of smart class rooms.
6. Most of the respondents felt proud to be an alumnus of the college.

RECOMMENDATIONS BY THE IQAC

1. Augmentation of smart class rooms/ICT enabled classroom.
2. Increase in library space should be looked into by the Governing Body.
3. Efforts to get the building grant for the Science Building should be intensified
